General Comment

As an educated and informed American Citizen, I am knowledgeable enough to know how to invest and spend the money I set aside for retirement in my 401k and IRA. I have long FEARED the Gov't involvement in my retirement accounts and as such, I have reduced my deposits over the years. This is yet another reason why I must now proactively decide if I should eliminate all contributions.

I am a service connected disabled veteran and a Virginian.
